INDEX FOR MARCH NEWSLETTER

Dear Patron,

Greeting from Sports Coaching Foundation, Hyderabad!!

It's the onset of scorching summer and the temperature is rising pretty high every day. But this does not stop Sports Coaching Foundation to continue its journey to reach out to the society.

We like to share with you the wonderful and unparallel Sporting experience SCF has provided to the Police Training Colleges of Andhra Pradesh.

SCF reached out to the Police Department to extend our humble support to their endeavors. SCF coordinated with all their police training centers at coastal Andhra, We are extremely happy and glad to share that we reached 6000 young Police Personals taking training at Nineteen centers. SCF organized Twenty audio-visual workshops for youth and children about sports culture etc, We have completed all the above Nineteen PTCs/ DTCs, conducted sports festivals successfully at first level within the period of two months. In this process, we have also completed SPC (Student Police Cadet) linked programme at different Govt schools.

SCF visited Twenty One rural and Semi-Urban Govt. schools along with the police officials, conducted a personality development programme through sports for around 8000 vulnerable children. The above project was completed in record time of two months. Our SCF team has traveled extensively from Chittoor town to Srikakulam district (around 3000 km approx) to accomplish these project objectives.

SCF thanks AP Police Department for providing us this wonderful opportunity to serve our nation.

Any season, any weather conditions, any kind of temperature- SCF stands with its objective of making sporting culture in India, a change mechanism in the mindsets for future generations.

I am here with attesting all beautiful short video links of our work for your kind perusal.

OUR BUREAU

Hyderabad: The city-headquartered Sports Coaching Foundation (SCF) has been going places, quite literally.

Having developed infrastructure and bringing to life barren lands by making them vibrant sports grounds in Telangana State, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka and Maharashtra, the Foundation has just accomplished a significant milestone.

The Foundation was invited by the Andhra Pradesh police department to organise sports events, workshops and seminars, deliver lectures to coaches, and conduct competitions for police personnel, particularly those attached to Police Training Colleges (PTC) in the State. This was apart from Student government schools, which included 21 rural and semi-urban government schools and several orphanages.

According to SCF founder-Secretary, K Sai Baba, they had covered around 3,000 kilometres from Srikakulam to Chittoor as part of the two-month police personnel attached to 19 centres. Around 8,000 students from the underprivileged families were also introduced to a new sports culture.

Some of the events conducted by SCF included DPTC Kurnool Games and Sports Meet, sports festivals

gole, Nellore, Eluru, Kadapa orphanage home, Anantapur SCTRISs, PTC Armed reserved headquarters Anantapur, Kasturba Girls High School Venkatagiri, PCR Govt School at Chittoor, Sathya Sai Vidya Vahini free educational school, Ongole, Rural Govt High School

EYE TIE-UP WITH TS GOVT

Rangampeta, boys and girls orphanage homes at Kakinada, Govt Girls high school Nidjur village, workshop at Tirupati, Police home Nellore, DMC High School Rajahmundry, APSP Telugu and English medium High school in Vizianagram.

Sai Baba stated that these were projects undertaken by the Foundation as part of its Build India campaign, which aims at ushering in a sports culture that is vibrant, result-oriented and one where there is no class discrimination.

He hoped that the Telangana State government would provide them opportunities to replicate such success stories as they could help in realising Bangaru Telangana on the sports front, sooner than later.
