SCF bags another prestigious award

METRO NEWS
HYDERABAD

Sports Coaching Foundation (SCF), the city-based NGO, added another feather in the cap when it was awarded 'Best NGO in India' award in the health category by Jindal Steel and Power Ltd. Founding secretary of SCF K Sai Baba received the award from Naveen Jindal in New Delhi on January 14.

The SCF had earlier bagged 'Best Sports NGO in India' award from the President of India in August last year. Adding to that, it also bagged 'India NGO Award' from Rockefeller Foundation, 'Best NGO Award' from AmeriCares India. Sai Baba also received 'Best Manager Award' from National Confederation of Resident Welfare Association in December 2015.

Asserting that the award is a big boost to the foundation, Sai Baba said that the corporate and government should come forward to help the initiative 'Built India Through Sports' to make a better society. "We are very happy for this recognition from the Jindal Steel and Power Ltd. We have been working for the betterment of less privileged children of the society through sports. This award is a special one as there are 18 NGOs in other sectors competing and we won the award. And for the first time, we also got ₹1 lakh as a token of appreciation. We thank Mr Jindal for the award," he said.

He also added that the SCF is training around 600 students at its premises out of which 500 are being training without taking any fee. "We have been working for the last 24 years to promote sports in the weaker sections. We have worked with around 30,000 children across the country through our 'Built India Through Sports' initiative. The Hyderabad district collector Rahul Bojja was impressed with our work and gave a project of promoting sports in 189 schools in the district. It is a great sign." He stressed that the corporates and government's support will transform the 'sleeping giant' India into a vibrant sporting nation.

Jindal Foundation honour for SCF

OUR BUREAU

Hyderabad: It may not be getting as many accolades as it deserves nearer home, but the relentless pursuits by the Masab Tank-based Sports Coaching Foundation (SCF) is getting recognition from beyond the State. This has been more so in the past 12 months,

The Foundation added one more feather to its cap when it was conferred the prestigious 'Best NGO in India' award in the health category from Navin Jindal, Chairman, Jindal Steel & Power Limited (JSPL) Foundation in New Delhi recently.

The recently instituted 'Rashtriya Swayamsiddh Samman' recognizing excellence and dedication at the national level saw SCF becoming the first NGO from Telangana State to be included in the roll of honour.

Reacting to the award, its founder-Secretary K Saibaba, who received it from Jindal, said "everyone at SCF is humbled by the recognition. It implies that our work is being noticed in the nooks and corners of the country".

He said "although our Foundation has coached over thirty thousand children from under-privileged sections through our 'Build India through Sports' project, we feel our work is not yet accomplished. Our endeavour would be to ring in a vibrant sports culture. I hope the corporate head honchos will take the lead and play a more pro-active role".
